

Welcome to Gasthaus Anich

Our Philosophy

For more than 120 years, Gasthaus Anich has been a place of connection, genuine Tyrolean hospitality, and honest cooking. In the heart of Innsbruck, we proudly preserve the traditions of Tyrolean inn culture – authentic, warm, and down-to-earth.

Our chef and innkeeper still cooks personally – with passion and dedication – ensuring every dish reflects the character of our house.

Our kitchen stands for:

- Honesty & Craftsmanship – We only serve what we'd happily eat ourselves. Everything is made by hand, with care and time – no ready-made products, no shortcuts. Instead, we focus on traditional techniques, time-honored recipes, and authentic flavors that speak for themselves.
- Regional Ingredients – Quality begins at the source: our potatoes, cabbage, and carrots come fresh from Wieserhof, complemented by vegetables from Ischia Gemüsehandel. Our coffee is locally roasted in Tyrol by Unbound – aromatic, sustainable, and regional.
- Homemade Specialties – Whether it's hearty soups, tender roasts, our popular dumpling variations, or a classic boiled beef (Tafelspitz): our dishes are full of history – and full of flavor.
And to finish your meal, don't miss our freshly made Kaiserschmarrn.

Locals and travelers, young and old, businesspeople and students – everyone is welcome here.

Our Gasthaus is all about atmosphere: rustic, cozy, and full of character – just like our food.

We're glad to have you here. Enjoy your meal!

Schahinjan Hovhannes & the Anich Team
